About RAINBOW CAMP

Rainbow Camp provides opportunities for children of diverse backgrounds to come together for fun, fellowship, and learning. We celebrate a different culture each day—living and learning the message that diversity is what makes the world so interesting and fun.

Participants: Kindergarten through 6th grade children

Activities: Music, Dance, Crafts, Stories, Cooking, Games, Drama, Field Trip to Alex Hailey farm and much more!

Health and Emergencies: In the event of an emergency, the staff may authorize medical treatment in life-threatening situations. Parents or guardians will be informed immediately. Parents/guardians sign a statement of consent to this policy when registering their children.

Supervision: Camp is directed by adult leaders. Two youth counselors guide groups of six to ten children each.

Registration: Advance registration is required and is limited to the first 45 children, of diverse backgrounds.

Registration ends April 30 for Oak Ridge U U Church--
May 30 for non-church children.
