Congregational Meeting This Sunday After Worship!

Congregational Meeting

Sunday, Dec. 10 at 11:15 a.m.
In the Sanctuary and on Zoom

No Adult Faith Formation.

Holiday Craft Hour for youth of all ages.

ORUUC's Fall Congregational Meeting takes place this Sunday, Dec. 10 following morning worship, in the Sanctuary and on Zoom; if you attend worship via Zoom, please stay in the Worship Zoom, or enter using this ZOOM LINK. Zoom Meeting ID: 946 8973 5846.

Along with the standard reports from the Minister, Board President, Treasurer and various committees, proposed bylaws changes will be discussed. Please see Page 5 for the meeting agenda. The agenda was also sent out to the membership by mail before Thanksgiving. If you did not receive a postcard, please call the church office (483-6761) to make sure we have your correct mailing address on file.

You Are Not Failing Christmas

Liz James, UUHS Founder

Some of you have already found and connected with the UU Hysterical Society, those profound prophets of mirth and dignity who keep our Unitarian Universalist funny bones tickled year-round. In case you haven't, check out their website

(<https://www.uuhystericalsociety.com/>), Facebook page, or podcast for a real treat. Here, with their permission, is a guest essay by UUHS founder Liz James. ~Rev. Lisa

You are not failing to Christmas properly. You are not failing if you are missing gifts, or if you are missing people. Or if you have people but are kind of wishing you didn't.

Or if you have given up, and are planning to stay home with Netflix, a few drinks, and the chocolates you forgot to give to your son's teacher on the last day before holidays.

Because they lied to you about what Christmas means.

Martha Stewart lied to you about the decor, the Church lied about when Jesus was born, and a whole INDUSTRY lied about shopping, and everybody lies about what a "normal" family looks like.

The real story is a terrified refugee kneeling in a barn, surrounded by dirt and poop. Pushing a baby out and then being descended upon by uninvited guests with poor gift giving skills. The real story is Mary hoping the star of Bethlehem doesn't get any brighter, because she's relying on dim lighting to hide all the blood and mucus in the straw.

The real story is the Pagans, saying "sure, uh, Jesus was born in midwinter" to keep the church from vetoing their party holiday. The real story is Decking the Halls not with coordinated theme decorations, but with whatever was lying around. Pinecones, and anything still green, and basically garbage from the back yard.

The Christmas you're trying to return to never happened.

December is not a season of beauty and depth and connection that you have somehow screwed up. Nobody gets that holiday--certainly not consistently. The only constant of Christmas is that it is constantly getting remade to fit the world of people celebrating it.

The meaning of Christmas is not about being perfect. Every piece of the story, when you trace it back, is about the opposite of being perfect. It's about something more beautiful, more profound, and decidedly less photogenic. To be human is to be part of a great story of making do. Of changing and learning, and getting together.

AND YOU, with your best-I-can-but-not-perfect-efforts, fit right into that story. YOU ARE NOT FAILING CHRISTMAS.

You are doing Christmas exactly right.

This Sunday, Dec. 10

A Point of Repose

As winter approaches, we're invited into a time of spiritual quiet, of germination, of dreaming. It's tempting for some to want to hibernate, to skip the winter's cold and dark, going straight from fall to spring. But winter can offer renewal, wisdom, and beauty. A congregational meeting follows this reflective service.

Worship with us at 10 a.m. in person or on Zoom. Zoom door opens at 9:45 a.m. Go to Sunday Worship Info — ORUUC for Zoom information. The Order of Service may be found here. Email or Text Prayer Requests to prayers@oruuc.org

December Split the Plate Offering: The Free Medical Clinic

After worship, please stay for the Congregational Meeting in the Sanctuary and on Zoom. All Adult Faith Formation classes are canceled; youth are invited to an all-ages holiday craft party during the meeting.

Covid-19 Update: Masks are not required in the building; we have masks and hand sanitizer available, and we encourage you to do what makes you feel comfortable.

Angel Tree Gifts Due Back at Church by Sunday, Dec. 10

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas morning in the church lobby! Reminder that all Angel Tree gifts are due back at church by this coming Sunday, Dec. 10. Gifts may be dropped off during church office hours (weekdays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.) Please also donate new gloves/mittens, hats, and socks to the Mitten Tree to benefit the Blossom Center. Thank you!

December Split the Plate Offering: The Free Medical Clinic

Every Sunday we share our offering 50/50 with a local agency chosen by our members during a vote at the Congregational Meeting each June. This month, the Split the Plate offering goes to the Free Medical Clinic.

The Free Medical Clinic is a non-profit, primarily volunteer-staffed organization offering free medical services to residents of Anderson, Roane, and Morgan Counties. It serves people who do not have insurance and cannot afford to pay for medical services due to their income level. Because they are a primarily volunteer organization, they rely on donations from individuals, churches, groups, etc. This clinic provides medical care to those who have no other resources. It can literally mean the difference between life and death for some people (such as undiagnosed cancer). We all deserve adequate health care and to be treated with worth and dignity (our first principle). Our support for the Free Medical Clinic helps us live our principles while providing support to the disadvantaged.

Please GIVE HERE as you are willing and able, or text "ORUUC" to 73256.

Announcements

PFLAG WINTER SOCIAL AT ORUUC--next Monday, Dec. 11 beginning at 6:45 p.m. All are welcome!

The nights may be long and dark, but lights will be bright at the PFLAG Winter Social on December 11. All are welcome to come and enjoy the holidays this season brings. The gathering will be held here at Oak Ridge Unitarian Universalist Church. We'll party from 6:45 to 8 p.m. If you would like to share a favorite holiday finger food, please bring it ready to serve.

All are welcome. The group gathers beginning at 6:45pm for a short social time followed by the meeting and more fun starting at 7:00. The group adjourns at 8 p.m.

Oak Ridge has an active PFLAG group which meets monthly, rotating the venue among faith communities including the First Presbyterian, First United Methodist, and Oak Ridge Unitarian Universalist Churches, United Church Chapel on the Hill, and the Jewish Congregation of Oak Ridge. PFLAG (formerly known as an acronym for Parents, Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays) is the United States' largest organization uniting families and allies with people who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, or queer (LGBTQ). Its mission is to provide opportunities for dialogue about sexual orientation, gender identities, and to create a society that is healthy and respectful of human diversity. For additional information, contact PFLAG President Anne Backus, backusanne@comcast.net.

Thanks to Martin Bauer for hanging the speakers in the Social Hall! And a special thanks to Anne Child, Nathaniel Bass, and Jimmy Groton who helped Martin get the speaker wires off of the floor and into wire molding. It feels great to get those big clunky stands out of the way!

The Oak Ridge Christmas Parade is TOMORROW! We'd love to have a large group walk with us this year! Meet at 5 p.m. at the Corporate Center on Lafayette Drive. Thanks to all who donated candy to distribute. There's always a crowd, so feel free to bring more! Questions? Multigenerational Director Whitney Cole is the point of contact. Thank you!

All are invited to join the middle and high school youth hike this Sunday, Dec. 10! Meet at church at 2 p.m. to carpool. The December hike will be along the Delaware Loop off Outer Drive near the intersection with Delaware Avenue. Parking on the street between Delaware and Ogontz is limited, which is why the group plans to carpool. The trail is about 1.5 miles, but there are lots of side trails in case the group chooses to extend the hike. Parents are welcome to hike, too! The group plans to return to church at 4 p.m. Parents: Please make sure that you fill out and turn in a release form before the hike. Forms will be available at drop off. Thanks to Jim Nutaro, Aubrey Wick Sebastian, Jimmy Groton, and Whitney Cole for organizing these monthly hikes!

Are you going through a difficult time? Are you in a situation where support and caring are needed--someone to do grocery shopping, take you to a doctor's appointment, or provide a meal following an upcoming surgery? Contact the church office: (865) 483-6761 or office@oruuc.org or a Caring Coordinator!

Please call at least two days in advance to allow time for Caring Coordinators to find a volunteer to provide the care that you need. Our ability to provide transportation is limited. If your appointment is routine and/or can wait, please reschedule it rather than call a Caring Coordinator. Thank you for reserving our Caring Volunteers for those situations that address serious needs that cannot wait.

Like receiving birthday cards? Or know someone who might? The Caring Team has a birthday sign-up sheet in the church lobby for anyone wishing to receive birthday greetings. Or email Mare Martell at maremartell@gmail.com to be added to the list.

Volunteer of the Month for December: Jen Stark

ORUUC
MONTH
Jen Stark
Thank you!

Our Unitarian Universalist faith celebrates diversity and encompasses a wide range of ways to demonstrate our values through service. Here at ORUUC, we have some who feed others as cooks, some who teach and serve children and Youth, some who create art to make our surroundings meaningful and beautiful, some who listen and support as caregivers, some who lead through policy and administrative positions, and some who sort and separate during the Rummage sale. We are grateful and blessed by the many ways ORUUCians share their time and talents with us.

Our December Volunteer of the Month...Jen Stark... does ALL these things and many more. If you were present in person or on Zoom last Sunday, you saw Jen in her roles as Worship leader and OWL Facilitator. In addition to those roles, Jen also serves on the Board of Trustees, is a leader of Stone Soup and EMBERS, helps facilitate the Depression & Anxiety Support Group, and is a lead volunteer for the Rummage sale. Jen also creates art that we often see adorning the walls here at ORUUC. Jen is also a Senior High Mountain CON advisor this weekend.

For her dedication and service, Jen received recognition during the Sunday, Nov. 26 worship service. She was honored with a certificate and will have access to the Volunteer of the Month parking spot for the month of December. When you see Jen, please thank her for her service. We sure do appreciate her and all that she does!

5th/6th Grade OWL Parent Orientation Sunday, Dec. 10 3-4:30 p.m.

For those interested in enrolling their child(ren) in the Grades 5/6th Our Whole Lives (OWL) sexuality education class next semester, we will be having a Parent Orientation meeting on Sunday, Dec. 10th from 3 to 4:30 p.m. in the ORUUC Sanctuary. There is room in the class for others, so please invite people you feel may be interested and available to take the class.

This meeting is mandatory if you have not previously attended OWL. If you have already attended a previous OWL orientation with another child, you are not required to be at orientation, but we will be discussing meeting times and taking care of permission forms and fees, in addition to the program overview. The cost of the class is $50 for members and $75 for nonmembers. If you need assistance with the fee, please see me; we have financial assistance available. Also, reach out to me if you have any questions or concerns about your child.

As Unitarian Universalists, our 1st Principle affirms the inherent worth and dignity of every human. Healthy intimate relationships and identities are the ultimate affirmation of this foundational value, and unhealthy and exploitive ones are it's ultimate violation. I thank you for giving your Youth the tools and skills to build loving relationships for themselves and the world around them.

In Care and Faith,
Christine Rehder
