Trading Rummage Stories

Amanda Fishel, Rummage Team Co-Leader

Twice each year, the ORUUC community comes together to transform our building. That's right, the time is now for our semi-annual church rummage sale! Over the course of this week, rummage volunteers have carried in an impressive amount of donations, shared meals and snacks, and traded stories. I'd like to share a few of those here.

Longtime volunteer and boutique leader Maureen Hoyt told me about the earlier days of the rummage sale, when it was held once per year at back-to-school time. She recounts setting new college students up with bedding and supplies for dorm life and helping families affordably fill out the wardrobes of their school aged children with quality, versatile pieces donated by our community.

Our newest co-leader, Jen Stark, has also benefited from the diverse offering of clothing. Recently, she revamped her own wardrobe for less than $50. Jen also notes the impressive array of yarn and other art supplies that she's found over the years.

Susan Hughes also watches for art supplies; she says that the rummage sale is a great place to stock up on watercolor paints. Some of her favorite finds, though, are donations of vintage items that remind her of her childhood. Several other folks also highlighted the fond memories brought out by seeing an Erector set or train set "just like I had when I was a kid."

Rummage also has newer unique finds. Tobi Bass told me about finding a Collector's Edition Breaking Bad set recently. It included not only the full television series, but also trinkets and other collectibles. Best of all, the like-new set was priced at rummage sale prices!

It's easy to look at the abundant donations and wonder about the consumerism that our society promotes. see come with a story. The story of a wooden table hand-built by a cherished late member... The story of secretary desk or a coffee table that's got a history not unlike a genealogy... The hand sewn, toddler sized Christmas dress, or the fabric to sew something new for a teen that's outgrown the frilly dresses of their younger days.

Please join us this weekend in the magic of rummage. Our presale is today, 6-8 pm, where you can preview what we have to offer and purchase items at double price. The sale is tomorrow, Saturday, March 2, 9-2, then volunteers are welcome to help with cleanup after the sale. I hope to see you this weekend! Who knows what treasures you will find?

March Split the Plate Offering: The Blossom Center for Childhood Excellence

After worship, please stay for coffee and treats in the Social Hall. Faith Formation classes for all ages meet from 11:15 to 12:15. The Nursery is available during worship and Faith Formation Hour.

Covid-19 Update: Masks are not required in the building; we have masks and hand sanitizer available, and we encourage you to do what makes you feel comfortable.

Still No Heat in the Sanctuary: Dress warmly for worship this Sunday!

Early last month, Martin Bauer noticed an issue with the Sanctuary not heating properly. A technician came out on February 6 to check out the system (on the roof), but due to a mix up at the company, the parts needed to make the necessary repairs were not ordered until last week. ORUUC is still awaiting an update from the company regarding the parts.

Please dress warmly for Worship this Sunday and for the Memorial Service in the afternoon.

Please leave the Sanctuary and Hearth Room doors open to allow warm air from other areas of the building to circulate. Thank you!

March Split the Plate Offering: Blossom Center for Childhood Excellence

Every Sunday we share our offering 50/50 with a local agency chosen by our members during a vote at the Congregational Meeting each June. This month, the Split the Plate offering goes to the Blossom Center for Childhood Excellence.

Blossom Center is a non-profit childcare facility serving approximately 80 children in Oak Ridge and surrounding areas. The Center's program is academically oriented, intended to bridge the gap between home and school in order to improve education outcomes, especially for underprivileged children.

Blossom Center is open during extended hours when other childcare facilities are closed, and allows children to attend based on a sliding tuition scale commensurate with family income, making it the premier facility of its sort in the area. They have also partnered with Alpha Kappa Alpha to pack backpacks of food for area children.

For more information, visit <https://www.blossomcenter.org/>.

Please GIVE HERE as you are willing and able, or text "ORUUC" to 73256.

Smoke Gets In Your Eyes?

When non-smokers complained about folks smoking near the doorways at ORUUC, the Executive Team researched the guidelines from the American Lung Association and decided to follow their advice to make a designated smoking area 25 feet from the doors. We also wanted to make it easy for renters using the social hall to comply with the new rules, so we arranged a comfortable place with a bench and a functioning “butt can.”

After the bench, butt can and sign went up, some complained that the smoking area was too close to the walkway, and feared that it sets a bad example for kids to see people smoking. Some would like the “designated smoking area” to be behind the garbage enclosure. Others feel that this would shame adults who choose to engage in a legal and (for some) enjoyable activity. And, the farther away and less visible the designated area is, the less likely it is that renters would comply.

The bottom line is: we simply want smoke-free (and vape-free) access to the building, and NO litter from tobacco products on the property. We’d like to make compliance easy for renters, who have little investment in keeping our beautiful church... well, beautiful.

Compromise is key to a healthy community, even though everyone has to give a little to meet in the middle. As a compromise solution the Executive Team has decided to take out the “designated smoking area” sign, leave the bench and one butt can where it is, and put the other butt can farther away. We’ll make it clear in our rental agreement that smokers and vapers should use the area, or another spot farther away (as long as they carry their cigarette butts to a safe disposal place).

In a democracy everyone gets a say, and not everyone gets their way. If you want to engage in more dialogue about the new compromise, do so directly (not anonymously) with a member of the Executive Committee (Donna Maloney, Jeannie Cuevas, Whitney Cole, Amanda Fishel, and Rev. Lisa Romantum Schwartz). Or you can contact rev.lisa@oruuc.org and she’ll take your ideas, and your name, to the Executive Committee at their next regularly scheduled meeting.

Interested in becoming a member of ORUUC? If you’re not sure about church membership, that’s OK, too! There are many ways that “friends of the church” can engage in deep and meaningful ways with most of what’s going on at ORUUC, and we’ll explore some avenues in this class. Join Rev. Lisa on Saturday, March 16 from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. for Pathways to Deeper Engagement. Please RSVP by March 9 HERE!

Endowment Fund Grant Applications Due March 31 by 5 p.m. Submit your application online here: Endowment Grant Application - 2024 or pick up a paper copy in the church office.

The objective of the Oak Ridge Unitarian Universalist Church Endowment Fund is to provide objects of enduring value to the church or support activities that promote, provide or enhance the church experience of the members of ORUUC, or ORUUC’s reputation in the community. The Endowment Committee asks that requests for support not overlap normally existing church activities or operations. Proposals should be consistent with the goals and objectives of the church and positively affect the community.

Can Artificial Intelligence Bridge Divides, Or Will it Separate Us Further?

Oak Ridge Periodic Tables and the “Healing Starts Here” grant initiative from the New Pluralists combined forces last year to help get the “Secret City” talking again about issues that matter. On Sunday, March 17 at 5 p.m., join us for dinner, followed by a short demonstration of how ChatGPT works, then we’ll generate a few questions and test the AI at our tables before coming back together as a large group to share what we’ve uncovered and how we feel about the conversations we had – both with AI and with each other.

Maxwell Livingston Pate (2003-2024)

Maxwell Livingston Pate passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, Feb. 25th at his home in Clinton, Tennessee. He was born on April 15, 2003, in Dothan, Alabama, and resided in Clinton with his mother, stepfather, four sisters, and brother.

Max attended Oak Ridge High School and was working for Valvoline at the time of his death. He was interested in pursuing a career in auto technology. Known for his vibrant personality, Max cherished spending time with his many friends and was often the life of the party. With a distinct sense of style, he delighted in thrifting his clothes. His interests included hiking, camping, fishing, and immersing himself in nature. Max enjoyed paddleboarding in the ocean, and had a transcendent experience when dolphins approached him during a stunning Florida sunset, and allowed him to pet them.

Deeply empathetic, Max was always there to support his siblings and friends with their problems. At work, he was frequently designated as the DJ due to his eclectic musical tastes and ability to read the vibe of the room. On his days off, he could be found skateboarding at the local skatepark with his friends. Max's kind soul endeared him to everyone he encountered. He was the bright light of his family's life.

Max was preceded in death by his grandmother Tamala Messer, grandfather Steven Lasseter, cousin Nathan Money, and stepfather Scott Hunter. He is survived by his mother Sarah Gunter and stepfather Robert Gunter, his father Bradford Pate (Kayla), grandmother Julie Hebble Arledge (Milton), Nana Theresa Brock, Poppa Jimmy Hopper, his sisters Diya, Norah, Georgia, Chloe, and his little brother Traveler Gunter. He also leaves behind his aunts Acia Middleton (Michael), Taryon Crawford, Layne Lasseter (Dudley), Anna Slay (Kevin), and uncle, Zach Lasseter along with numerous cousins and girlfriend Makenzie Walker.

A celebration of Max's life will be held on Sunday, March 3rd at 2 pm at Oak Ridge Unitarian Universalist Church, located at 809 Oak Ridge Turnpike. Memorial donations may be made to a charity of your choice.
